BIO - Brendan Mason – Director, Same Page Cultures

Brendan is the founder of Same Page Cultures; a leadership and culture consultancy business established in 2011.

Brendan's consultancy experience spans 35 years across various settings including corporate settings, AFL, VFL and TAC Cup levels, and in Victoria Police as an internal leadership consultant. Brendan tailors his offerings to suit the unique needs of each client in an ever-evolving world and implements measurable evaluations to ensure positive client outcomes and success.

Key areas that Brendan specialises in include:

- cultural change and alignment
- leadership development
- high performance mindsets and high-performance teams
- strategic planning
- executive and leadership coaching
- keynote addresses
- motivational speaking

Brendan's qualifications include:

- Post Graduate Diploma in Leadership, Change and Organisational Alignment
- High Performance AFL coach
- Certified Professional Coach
- Facilitator qualification
- Trainer and Assessor
- DISC and Myers Briggs Type Indicator personality profiling

Brendan enjoys travelling, reading, football, cricket, running, bush hiking, and music and spending time with his wife, children, and grandchildren.