

Power House Amateur Football Club

Code of Conduct

2011

The Power House Amateur Football Club aims to provide a positive sporting environment for the benefit of all members. We will endeavour to always provide for the health, welfare and wellbeing of all our players, coaches, staff, officials, members and supporters at all times.

When representing the Power House Amateur Football Club, all players, coaches, officials, supporters and committee members have a responsibility to conduct themselves at all times in a manner consistent with the ethics outlined below in the code of conduct.

Code of Conduct and Ethics:

- Respect the rights, and worth of every person regardless of their gender, cultural background or religion
- Be fair, considerate and honest in all dealings with others
- Never condone rule violations, rough play or the use of prohibitive substances
- Display consistently high standards of positive behaviour and appearance
- Consider the safety and well-being of participants at all times
- Ensure all activities are modified to suit the age, ability and maturity of participants
- Promote fair play and participation.
- Always respect the decisions of officials and support them to carry out their duties
- Respect and follow the guidelines, policies and practices of Football Victoria and The Victorian Amateur Football Association, including racial and religious tolerance, welcoming and inclusive environments, and responsible alcohol consumption.
- Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility.